Frankfurt Summer School organized by Goethe University and held completely in English wants to provide participants with seminars covering cutting-edge research issues in their field of study:

Legal Studies

Law in Modern Societies: Fundamental, International and Interdisciplinary Aspects

Psychology

Social Psychological and Organizational Behavior (also open to students of Business Administration, Economics as well as those of Social, Cultural and Political Sciences)

Natural and Life Sciences

Studying Modern and Ancient Biodiversity and Environments in the Context of Global Change

Moreover, it offers an extensive cultural programme including various activities ranging from excursions to site visits:

Get to know multicultural Frankfurt and its surroundings, visit Heidelberg with its historic castle and internationally renowned city centre, Strasbourg with its magnificent old town and the European Parliament and optionally also Berlin.

The German Language Courses for beginners and more advanced learners take place in small learning groups.
