Programme

How does it feel to be a stranger in an unknown environment? In a new city? In a group of new people? In a far away country? Where you don't know the language nor cultural habits? What do we need to feel comfortable, to feel familiar? How to get there? – Let's explore these questions!

The main activity during the programme will be to jointly face the topic of being a stranger and feeling different from the majority. On the basis of this idea we will create a radio show picking up interview sequences, own concepts and experiences around the topic.

The participants are free to work on all aspects of the topic, which can be understood in a political as well as in an individual and/or intercultural way.

In cooperation with trainers of the independent local radio station ColoRadio we will work in small radio studios to prepare a radio show, which will be broadcasted.

If you are interested in taking part in the workshop, please, send the attached application form by email or fax. Send the form also to the National Agency of Livelong Learning in Germany (na@bibb.de) and to the National Agency in your country.
