Italian Summer Course 2013

"Intensive Language and Culture"

02nd – 20th July 2013

The Mobility and International Relations Office (ASTU - Student Services Area) of the University of Udine, in cooperation with the Linguistic Centre of the University of Udine (CLAV), supported by ERDISU (Ente Regionale per il Diritto e le Opportunità allo Studio Universitario di Udine), ALEF (Associazione Lavoratori Emigrati del Friuli Venezia Giulia) and "Ente Friuli nel Mondo", organizes the "Italian Summer Course 2013", that will take place at the University of Udine (Italy), from the 2nd to the 20th July 2013.

LEVELS AND TEACHING GOALS

In order to assess their current level of Italian, Participants will take a placement test at the beginning of the Course. It will consist in a written and oral test. At the end of the course a frequency and proficiency certificate will be issued to those who have shown regular attendance and progress.

Elementary

At the end of the course, Participants will be able to understand frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information), familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of concrete type. They will produce short texts using simple terms aspects of their background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

Intermediate

At the end of the course, Participants will be able to deal with everyday social situations and describe events using their past, present and future experiences. They will be able to understand clear and short texts on cultural topics. They will produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest and clear formal text.

Advanced

At the end of the course, Participants will be able to understand everyday language in any interpersonal and social situation, real and audio-visual texts. They will be able to express their feelings and explain a viewpoint, differentiating finer shades of meaning and using well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects.
