

International Summer School in the heart of Europe
Vrije Universiteit Brussel | Brussels (Belgium) | 7 – 19 July 2014

Culture Food Art Sports

European Identity?

EU Citizenship Politics Dynamics

Business Career Economy

Explore different angles of European culture at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel, one of the leading universities in Europe. Participants will be immersed in a programme of study, culture and fun activities. Our courses are taught by experts in their domain:

- The European Educational System
- European Research and Innovation Policy for a New Renaissance
- The EU Institutions
- Social Value of Sport in the City
- Exercise in Health and Disease
- Food and Identity Construction. The case of food
- Gender and Diversity in a European Context
- Citizenship Policies in Europe. Different National Models or European Convergence?
- Italy in the European Cultural Context
- The Modern World System Originated in European Late Medieval Cities
- The European Cities Network
- A City is not a Country
- Brussels, a Small World City to Become Capital of Europe
- European Economic Integration
- Start Ups: testimonials and case study: From Idea to Start Up
- International Career Preparation
- Introduction to Modern and Contemporary Art

'European Identity?' includes important cultural visits, like: an excursion to historical Brussels and the European Parliament, a Belgian chocolate factory, the historical city of Bruges, also meeting the World of Art, and many more great experiences like a Belgian beer workshop.

Fee is 2.480 per person and includes lessons, study materials, accommodation from 6 July till 19 July, lunches (not on Sunday), 4 group dinners, excursions and insurance. It does not include the international flight, visa related fees and personal expenses. Information on payment will be given after submission of the application form.

Venue: Vrije Universiteit Brussel | <http://www.vub.ac.be/en/events/2014/european-identity>

More information?

International Relations & Mobility Office | International.relations@vub.ac.be Postal address: Pleinlaan 2, 1050 Brussels, Belgium
Visitor address: Pleinlaan 5, 1050 Brussels, Belgium

Vrije
Universiteit
Brussel